

Packing well and lightly don't often go hand-in-hand, especially if you want to keep technology at your fingertips. LOGITECH has solved this, however, making it easier to be away from your home and desk whilst staying plugged in. It has mastered portable, wireless keyboards, webcams and headphones, but its Pure-Fi Anywhere speakers are a favourite for being light to carry, easy-to-use and perfect if you want to add mood music to your favourite setting. SCOTLAND has much to offer – from eating hot-smoked salmon sandwiches overlooking Kisimul Castle to visiting the Corryreckan Whirlpool – and if you go to www.cntraveller.com/visitscotland you can order your free copy of Real Scotland: The Locals' Guide to discover more.

MOST WANTED

This month's must-haves, from secret compartments to Scottish castles. By Christina Arfwedson

Like the man himself, the 'BOND' BRIEFCASE comes with a little extra. With pockets for phone, Blackberry, Mont Blanc pen and secret dossiers, it also features a hidden compartment for an overnight stay – perfect for those who want a swift exit off a plane. Go in store to view the range of colours, or visit www.asprey.com

In the state of SOUTH AUSTRALIA lies a red wilderness called the Flinders Range. It is home to ANGORICHINA Station, an oasis from the arid landscape and somewhere to immerse oneself in the workings of an Outback sheep station. Bridge and Wickers can arrange a trip here that puts you in the capable hands of Ian and Di Fargher, who will guide you through this special landscape, including tours of local Aboriginal rock art.
